

PTO Update

Busy Week

Thank you to everyone who made any kind of contribution this week (Book Fair, KG Special Person's Day, LWLO, Ask the Expert), we appreciate it! Looking ahead to the next two weeks, it'll be busy again. • We are still in need of many volunteers for The Apollo Project, 14 per time slot. This is because there are 7 interactive stations for the students to visit, each needing two volunteers. • We also have PTO Officer Elections on Wednesday. You will have two opportunities to vote. Member meeting will start at 7 pm in the Westwood Library. See our website to see who is running for next year. • Next week marks the start of One School One Book. This year we will read The Paper Wagon by martha attema. PTO has provided one copy per family. Check our website for more information.
